Report on Pre-Final Years (2025 Batch) Technical Coding Training

Event Conducted during: 18/01/24 to 03/02/24 (phase 1 training)

The Training and Placement Cell has organized Technical Coding Training for pre-final year students through external professional trainers, to help our students prepare for their upcoming drives. The report summarizes the training focused on various advanced programming. The main objective of the training was to enhance the understanding of programming, its syntax, and the practical applications.

The training mainly focused on assisting the students to get familiarized with the fundamental concepts in various programming languages and had also introduced the fundamental concepts, syntax and semantics, including C programming language. The students were also provided with hands on experience through coding exercises and projects. Most importantly the trainers were student friendly and ensured that each student was helped right from the basics of programming.

Daily assignments were given to ensure that the students were provided with ample opportunities to hone their skills, and any issues / difficulties faced by the students were also collected via daily feedback, and corrective actions for the same were taken within 24 hours

Key topics covered under the Technical Coding Training are listed below:

- Introduction to Effective Advanced Programming
- Basic Syntax and Data Types
- Control Structures and Functions

- Arrays, Strings, and Pointers
- Memory Management and Dynamic Allocation
- Sorting and Advanced Concepts.

In the above training schedule, programing functions were the key to understand the upcoming scheduled topics. Hence, special care was taken by the trainers and made sure that each and every student had got the good understanding about the functions and its application. The same was very much appreciated by the students.

Training Methodologies:

Lecture Sessions: Interactive presentations covering theoretical concepts and practical examples.

Hands-on Exercises: Students were given coding exercises to reinforce their understanding of concepts taught, and company specific questions were discussed to test the students' understanding.

Quizzes and Assessments: Regular quizzes were conducted to evaluate participants' grasp of the material.

Projects: Participants worked on small projects to apply their knowledge in real-world scenarios

The training program provided our students with a solid foundation in programing. Students gained proficiency in writing, compiling, and debugging various programs. The hands-on approach and practical exercises enhanced their understanding and prepared them for real-world application of various effective programing aspects.

Technical Coding Training for Final Year Students

Event Conducted on: 17/07/2023 to 22/07/2023

The Department of Training and Placement of Saranathan College of Engineering, in continuation to the phase 1 of training in the month of January 2023, had conducted its phase 2 Coding Training from 17/07/2023 to 22/07/2023 for the 2024 batch students.

The training was given by Innate Talent, which involved and focused on Basic and Advanced C Programming, Data Structures and various Algorithms, which gave the students a clear and holistic understanding on the industry-ready topics. It was a two-phase event, where the phase 1 was conducted from 30/01/2023 to 04/02/2023 and phase 2 was a continuation. For all the 12 days, our students were trained by trainer experts in their field with 15+ years of experience, and the entire training module were conducted in various computer laboratories equipped with systems of high-end configurations, and enabled our students to have a hands-on experience on real time coding problems.

This training has given our students a vivid understanding on the recruiter's expectations, which in turn gave them the opportunity to upskill themselves appropriately. To ensure that our students are bagging high paying jobs in their dream companies, we have also planned on conducting a 3-day extended training to teach them in-depth concepts on advanced coding concepts. We hope and believe that the students of 2024 batch, through this training process, will have a wide pool of opportunity and get employed in a high paying MNC for an improved lifestyle.
