Encl.: List of staff members appointed as Examiners.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EXAMINER

The instructions given below are to be adhered strictly so as to ensure smooth conduct of central valuation.

1. Examiners are expected to produce their order for examinership to the Chairman/Camp officer on the first day of valuation at the centre. Valuation will be done from 9.00 A.M to 4.30 P.M on all days.
2. Examiners should report for valuation in time on all days of central valuation and examiners reporting after 9.30 A.M for valuation will not be entertained. The examiners may avail leave for a day or two, only in case of emergency with the prior permission of the Chairman and the camp officer concerned.
3. 25 papers per session and 50 papers in total have to be valued per day. Papers allotted on a particular day shall be valued on that day itself.
4. Before commencement of valuation of answer scripts in a subject, please check up with Chairman as to whether any comments on question paper are received and any decision has been taken for consideration during valuation.
5. Examiners are instructed not to leave the hall before the allotted time. The Chairman is instructed to report non-adherence of this instruction by Examiner to the Zonal officers through camp officer.
6. Examiners who accept the offer and fail to turn up at the centre without prior intimation may not be considered for appointment, as examiners, for the subsequent examinations.
7. Examiners who do not turn up at the centre of valuation in time on the prescribed day will not be entertained and the Chairman is authorized to report the matter to the Zonal officer, who will make alternate arrangements.
8. Examiners have to enter the marks only in the marks column on the title page of answer script. Marks should not be entered inside the answer paper against the answers.
9. The total marks obtained by the candidate should be written on the title page (Both in numerals and in words) and the examiners requested to sign and write his/her name on the Answer sheet (in capital letters).
10. Appeal on the answer script must be brought to the notice of the Controller of Examinations through the Chairman//Zonal officer in writing, without fail, for further action. However, the paper shall be valued
If any such, malpractice was not reported by the Examiner and subsequently found out by this office during retotalling / revaluation, the concerned Examiner will be asked to offer explanation.
11. Zero mark, if any awarded shall also be entered in appropriate column of the title page of the answer book.
12. The answer book is to be valued without leaving any subdivision. Marks awarded to each subdivision shall be entered separately in the columns provided in the title page.
13. The total marks entered in the Mark Entry Portal and that in the title page of the answer scripts shall be clearly checked before handing over script to the Chairman.
14. If the valuation of any answer book is found to be incomplete/any mistake was noticed with regard to the entry of marks awarded in the appropriate column in the front page of the answer book or in the total marks awarded, the Examiner will have to rectify the defect in person at the Zonal Office on the date and time as intimated and for such work no AIE and remuneration will be paid.
15. The examiners shall be responsible for any disparity in Valuation.
16. Examiners will be paid remuneration for valuation of answer scripts along with AIE as per the existing rules of the university.
17. The examiners are instructed not to accept any other assignment from any other college or university during the said period of valuation. The examiners should be prepared for the entire period of valuation as specified and complete the assigned work failing which, they may not be considered for appointment as examiner for the subsequent two semesters.
18. Usage of mobile phones within the valuation hall is strictly prohibited.
19. Kind co-operation of the examiners is solicited for the successful conduct of valuation.

Zonal Coordinator

INSTRUCTIONS TO EXAMINER

The instructions given below are to be adhered strictly so as to ensure smooth conduct of central valuation.

1. Examiners are expected to produce their order for examinership to the Chairman/Camp officer on the first day of valuation at the centre. Valuation will be done from 9.00 A.M to 4.30 P.M on all days.
2. Examiners should report for valuation in time on all days of central valuation and examiners reporting after 9.30 A.M for valuation will not be entertained. The examiners may avail leave for a day or two, only in case of emergency with the prior permission of the Chairman and the camp officer concerned.
3. 25 papers per session and 50 papers in total have to be valued per day. Papers allotted on a particular day shall be valued on that day itself.
4. Before commencement of valuation of answer scripts in a subject, please check up with Chairman as to whether any comments on question paper are received and any decision has been taken for consideration during valuation.
5. Examiners are instructed not to leave the hall before the allotted time. The Chairman is instructed to report non-adherence of this instruction by Examiner to the Zonal officers through camp officer.
6. Examiners who accept the offer and fail to turn up at the centre without prior intimation may not be considered for appointment, as examiners, for the subsequent examinations.
7. Examiners who do not turn up at the centre of valuation in time on the prescribed day will not be entertained and the Chairman is authorized to report the matter to the Zonal officer, who will make alternate arrangements.
8. Examiners have to enter the marks only in the marks column on the title page of answer script. Marks should not be entered inside the answer paper against the answers.
9. The total marks obtained by the candidate should be written on the title page (Both in numerals and in words) and the examiners requested to sign and write his/her name on the Answer sheet (in capital letters).
10. Appeal on the answer script must be brought to the notice of the Controller of Examinations through the Chairman//Zonal officer in writing, without fail, for further action. However, the paper shall be valued
If any such, malpractice was not reported by the Examiner and subsequently found out by this office during retotalling / revaluation, the concerned Examiner will be asked to offer explanation.
11. Zero mark, if any awarded shall also be entered in appropriate column of the title page of the answer book.
12. The answer book is to be valued without leaving any subdivision. Marks awarded to each subdivision shall be entered separately in the columns provided in the title page.
13. The total marks entered in the Mark Entry Portal and that in the title page of the answer scripts shall be clearly checked before handing over script to the Chairman.
14. If the valuation of any answer book is found to be incomplete/any mistake was noticed with regard to the entry of marks awarded in the appropriate column in the front page of the answer book or in the total marks awarded, the Examiner will have to rectify the defect in person at the Zonal Office on the date and time as intimated and for such work no AIE and remuneration will be paid.
15. The examiners shall be responsible for any disparity in Valuation.
16. Examiners will be paid remuneration for valuation of answer scripts along with AIE as per the existing rules of the university.
17. The examiners are instructed not to accept any other assignment from any other college or university during the said period of valuation. The examiners should be prepared for the entire period of valuation as specified and complete the assigned work failing which, they may not be considered for appointment as examiner for the subsequent two semesters.
18. Usage of mobile phones within the valuation hall is strictly prohibited.
19. Kind co-operation of the examiners is solicited for the successful conduct of valuation.
